OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 25th July 1953

No. 20-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the Maha Vir Chakra to the following officer for an act of gallantry in the operations in Jammu and Kashmir:—

(The effective date of award is given in brackets against the name.)

Major Annavi Krishnaswamy Ramaswamy (SS 14035), 3 MII (Posthumous) (16th January 1948).

On 16th January 1948, Major A. K. RAMASWAMY whilst in command of a Company of a Para Bn. at NAUSHERA, was ordered to reinforce the forward Company, which was under enemy fire. He moved his Company forward and helped to relieve the pressure of the enemy fire. After the rest of the Battalion had safely withdrawn, it was the turn of Major RAMASWAMY's Company to withdraw. The route of withdrawal was covered by heavy enemy fire. While crossing the most exposed part of the ground, a sepoy got wounded and was left behind. Major RAMASWAMY, without any regard for his personal safety, ran back to evacuate the wounded sepoy. The wounded sepoy gallantly warned this officer not to come to his aid and thus expose himself to enemy fire. But undaunted, the officer went to his aid and managed single handed to bring back the wounded soldier some 15 yards under a hail of enemy fire, when he himself was mortally wounded and died while being evacuated to the Regimental Aid Post.

No. 21-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the VIR CHAKRA to the following for acts of gallantry in the operations in KOREA:—

(The effective dates of awards are given in brackets against the names.)

1. 29485 Naik/Nursing Orderly NAG SEN SINGH, A.M.C. (23rd November 1951).

During the period 17th—23rd November 1951, while serving with a forward casualty collecting post at MARYANGSAN (KOREA), Naik/Nursing Orderly NAG SEN SINGH distinguished himself by heroic achievement.

The opposing force was launching an offensive on the Div. front and the casualty rate was extremely high. Though the aid post was under mortar and shell fire, Naik NAG SEN SINGH worked steadily for prolonged hours to administer aid to and evacuate the numerous wounded skilfully and with great despatch.

His courageous devotion to duty and notable professional skill reflect great credit on himself and the Army Medical Service.

2. 6574273 Lance Naik BUDH SINGH, A.S.C. (5th November 1951).

During the period 4th—5th November 1951, the 1 Bn. K.O.S.B. suffered several casualties due to a heavy attack at MARYANGSAN (KOREA) and many of the wounded needed immediate evacuation for medical attention.

L/Nk. BUDH SINGH, disregarding his own safety, evacuated the casualties to the rear area by his stretcher jeep from the front lines over a road half a mile of which was open terrain subjected to constant heavy shell fire. He voluntarily continued driving through the shell fire until the evacuation of all casualties was completed.

This NCO's gallant action was very creditable, both to him and to the military Medical Service.

3. 6574258 Naik UMRAO SINGH, A.S.C. (31st December 1952).

Nk. UMRAO SINGH served with heroic distinction throughout the period December 1950—December 1952. On several occasions he volunteered himself to evacuate casualties from the forward positions and thus exposed himself to intense mortar fire. On one occasion he was wounded by a mortar.

His courageous actions resulted many times in aiding the evacuation of the wounded much earlier than would otherwise have been possible.

No. 22-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, Class II, to the undermentioned officer for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty:—

(The effective date of award is given in brackets against the name.)

No. 2952 Flight Lieutenant RAIZADA HARBANS CHAUDHRY, I.A.F. (6th October 1951).

At about 1430 hours on the 6th October, 1951, an Indian Air Force Dakota crashed in Turkey, and resulted in the death of five aircrew, including Air Commodore Narendra. Flt. Lt. R. H. CHAUDHRY was one of the two survivors of that accident.

When the aircraft crashed, Flt. Lt. CHAUDHRY was thrown clear of the wreckage, and sustained serious injuries on his arm and knee. In spite of this, he showed extraordinary courage and self-sacrifice. His action after the crash was a noble example of conspicuous bravery and calmness in the most trying circumstances. He dragged the other survivor, Pilot Officer M. M. Dutt, who was unconscious and whose thigh-bone was fractured, from the burning aircraft and thus saved the life of a comrade from certain death by fire. He then rushed to aid the other victims and succeeded in smothering the flames with his rain-coat and in spite of the heat and smoke attempted to pull out the entrapped persons from the wreckage. He did not stop his efforts against overwhelming odds until the main fuel tank of the aircraft exploded and thus made further effort on his part impossible.

He improvised arrangements for the safety of the other survivor, Pilot Officer M. M. Dutt and walked 6 to 7 miles with utmost difficulty, through the greater part of the night, through unknown mountainous territory to get help.

No. 23-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, Class III, to the undermentioned JCO for an act of gallantry performed in RISHIKESH, DEHRA DUN:—

(The effective date of award is given in brackets against the name.)

30591-IO Sub. TEK BAHADUR SAHI, 9 G.R. (1st June 1952).

On 1st June 1952, while on an organised regimental shoot in a jungle near RISHIKESH, DEHA DUN, Sub. TEK BAHADUR SAHI, with exceptional courage and presence of mind, rushed forward to the assistance of a Naik who was being savagely mauled by a wounded tiger. As this Subedar was unable to shoot the tiger from any distance for fear of hitting the Naik, he rushed up to the animal, undaunted by the roaring of the maddened beast, and laying the barrel of his rifle against the animal's chest, fired two shots and killed the tiger. He thus saved the Naik from certain death.

This display of personal bravery by Subedar TEK BAHADUR was in the highest traditions of soldierly conduct.

No. 24-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, Class III, for an act of gallantry to:—

Mr. Alistair Sievwright Bruce, Planter of Baintgoorie Tea Estate, Mal P.O., Dooars, West Bengal.

On the night of 11th July, 1952 when Mr. BRUCE was returning from Bagracote to his house near Mal he found a lorry which had gone through a high bridge on the main road owing to the river having washed away the abutments. The front of the lorry had sunk right through the bridge and the cab was badly telescoped by the force of the impact and the weight of goods which the lorry was carrying. There were four men in the cab, completely trapped, and one had his leg broken in two places. Mr. Bruce, with complete disregard for his own safety, immediately went to the help of the four men, whom he extricated only with great difficulty. While he was so engaged an electric short-circuit occurred which might easily have set fire to the lorry and burnt the trapped occupants if Mr. Bruce had not wrenched the wires from under the dashboard—a difficult proceeding in a lorry at a very steep angle with the cab telescoped. Mr. Bruce eventually extricated the men by getting them to clasp their hands round his neck so that he was able to force himself backwards with his hands free and drag them with him. All this occurred with the lorry hanging at a steep angle over a sheer drop into a river in spate.

Mr. Bruce saved the lives of four men at considerable risk to his own life and thereby displayed determination, resourcefulness and gallantry of a high order.

Shri Baboolal, Shot-firer in Tirodi South Manganese Mines, Madhya Pradesh.

On the 8th February, 1952, at 6 P.M., while Shri Premall, employed as a shot-firer in Tirodi South Manganese Mines, owned by the Central Provinces Manganese Ore Company Limited, Madhya Pradesh, was climbing up a steep face of a quarry after igniting the fuses of a series of shots of Gelignite, he slipped and rolled down the steep face to one of the shot-holes. Before Premall could recover himself the shot-hole exploded. His left hand was blown off and he sustained several other serious injuries. Shri Baboolal, a fellow shot-firer, who had also been engaged in the blasting operations, seeing the accident rushed to Premall's assistance, pulled him out of danger, and saved his life. This he did knowing full well that the other shot-holes in the immediate vicinity were about to explode. Shri Baboolal showed considerable bravery in the face of grave danger.

No. 26-Pres./53.—The President is pleased to institute the Overseas Clasp to be worn with The General Service Medal—1947 for operational Service ex-India.

The following categories of persons shall be eligible for the Medal and/or the Clasp:—
